

Euro-toques Ireland
European Community of Cooks

Euro-toques 5th National Food Forum & Fair
Brooklodge Hotel, Macreddin, Co. Wicklow
Sunday 3rd September 2006

‘Ireland – the Food Island?’
Developing Ireland as a Culinary Destination

Supported by Fáilte Ireland

The 5th Euro-toques National Food Forum & Fair at Brooklodge, Macreddin, Co. Wicklow will take place on Sunday, 3rd of September 2006.

This year we are calling on people from all sectors of the Food and Tourism industries to attend.

FORUM This year’s forum, entitled ‘Ireland, the Food Island? Developing Ireland as a Culinary Destination’, will examine the area of food tourism and the potential for Ireland to develop this industry. The forum, supported by Fáilte Ireland, will welcome experts from the US and Ireland and we are eager to have input from all areas of the food and tourism industries into this discussion.

CHAIRMAN: Peter Ward Chairman of TASTE Council

PANEL: Colman Andrews Editor of US Saveur Magazine
John McKenna Author of the Bridgestone Guides
James McGeough Award winning Craft Butcher/Speciality Food Producer
Trevor White Editor of the Dubliner Magazine
John Mulcahy Fáilte Ireland
(Panel may be subject to change).

SCHEDULE

10.30am	Registration
11 – 1.30pm	Forum
1.30 – 3pm	Visit to Food Fair
3pm	Organic & Wild Food BBQ at the Chapel including Champagne Reception & Wines

FAIR Runs from approx 11am-5pm

The Food Fair typically features about 50 small food producers with a wide selection of food to eat on the spot or take away. There is a BBQ stall at the fair and entertainment from the Nigel Mooney Jazz band. Children will be well- catered for at the Food Fair with a variety of food options.

BBQ AT THE CHAPEL As usual the kitchen tea at Brooklodge will prepare their superb organic and wild food barbecue accompanied by a variety of salads and followed by dessert. Champagne and wines will also be served. All included in ticket price.

ACCOMMODATION is available at Brooklodge Hotel.

Forum, BBQ & Accommodation must be booked in advance. To book please fill out and return the attached booking form, along with payment, to the Euro-toques office or contact us on 01-6779995 or info@eurotoquesirl.org for more information.